Notes for ANNA RITTER:

Dave, I was sure surprised to see Anna Newton and Simeon Newton with Thomas and Manerva's daughter in the 1880 census. I never dreamed she would have remarried but evidently she did. I also found Simeon Newton in 1870 census also in Tuscola co, Tuscola Twp. 58 yrs old, trapper. So Anna snagged him or he trapped her, whatever....a new lead...great.--Sally McCollum

DIED IN GREAT AGONY

A Veteran Soldier of the Civil War Dies Rather Mysteriously

After having been ill but a few hours, Prismas Klock died at mid night Saturday in great agony, the symptoms of his illness bearing somewhat of a resemblance to those accompanying poisoning. Coroner Grube, who was called, does not take much stock in the poison story, but in order to ascertain accurately the cause of death, he decided to hold an inquest, fixing the hour for 10 o'clock this morning, at hose house # 8. James Lester, John Taylor, Charles Robinson, T.E. Wellmen, William Wirtz and Charles Richardson, were impaneled as the jury. Deceased was 61 years of age and was a veteran of the civil war, having served in Co. I, Tenth Michigan infantry. He leaves a son, residing in Bay City, and two brothers, John and Charles of Tuscola.

At the coroner's inquest, held yesterday at the hose house # 8, over the remains of Prismas Klock, whose sudden death Saturday night has been mentioned, the jury found that death was due to congestion of the brain, and not poisoning, as was first rumored. A brief funeral service was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 609 Russell street, and the remains were laid to rest in the soldiers' plot in Forest Lawn cemetery.

This is interesting: The above article says that Prisos had two brothers, Charles and John. I have his two brothers as Thomas and Lysander! Charles and John we the sons of Isaac.

Below are the Klocks that are buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Notes for NATHAN KLOCK:
Search for Nathan Klock

Nathan was born abt. June 13, 1870. He married Mary Johndro. According to Bay City Directory. He died between 1903 and 1909 as his wife is listed as widowed.

According to Michigan Marriages 1868-1925. Nathan married Fern Rhine. But this record says he was born in 1879, not 1870. I really don't know what to make of the marriage record. It almost looks like two different Nathan's. One born abt 1870 and one born 1879. Yet the 1880 census lists him 9 years old and as the son of Thomas and Minerva Cypher. Could there be two Nathan's here.

Sault Ste. Marie-Nathan Klock, of Racó, who was sentenced to serve from three to five years at the Ionia State Reformatory, at the term of circuit court here, when he was charged with abandonment, escaped from the Ionia institution early last week, according to word received from the prison by Sheriff Ford McKee.

The notification states that Klock escaped while working outside the prison walls.

Klock abandoned his wife and children at Harbor Springs. He came to the Upper Peninsula and worked in the lumber camps near Racó and later went to Traverse City, where he was arrested and brought here for trial.

Obituary of Marian Florence Beatty

Marian Florence Klock Beatty, 88, of Liberty, went home to be with the Lord on April 5, 2007, at Sunbridge Nursing Home of Dunbar.
Born June 23, 1918, in Battle Creek, Mich., she graduated from Western Michigan University. Marian was a retired teacher with over 30 years of service. Before coming to West Virginia, she and Dr. Beatty taught and lived in Palo Alto, Calif.

Marian was a "people person". After arriving here, she quickly became acquainted with her neighbors both near and in surrounding areas. She enjoyed life and traveled extensively. She loved gardening and took great delight in her flowers, which she shared with others, at church, in hospitals, in nursing homes and to shut-ins. She had a beautiful singing voice and sang in choir at the Baptist Temple in Charleston, where she attended. She was first chair in violin in college. She enjoyed spending time with her friends at the Senior Center in Hometown.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Lysander and Florence Weathersall Klock; brother, Arnold Klock; and husband, Dr. Hubert I. Beatty.

She is survived by a sister, Rosamond Martin of Battle Creek, Mich.; one niece, Joyce Bonfoey and husband Burl of North Pole, Alaska; and nephew, Mike Martin and wife of Roanoke, Va. She was a wonderful and caring person and will be sadly missed.

The service will be 7 p.m. Monday, April 9, at Gatens-Harding Funeral Home, 147 Main Street, Poca, WV 25159 with the Rev. Paul Arthur officiating. Friends may call two hours prior to the service on Monday. A graveside service will take place at 11 a.m. Wednesday, April 11, at Oak Hill Cemetery in Battle Creek, Mich.
