Klock

Olin Klock, 107 Prospect Ave., March 11, 1966, St. Joseph's Hospital. Survived by one sister, Mrs. Alberta Showers of Oswego, and several neices and nephews. Funeral services, Sunday at 5 p.m. Dewitt Funeral Home, 749 W. Onondaga St., the Rev. Leonard Piepoli of New Haven Methodist Church officiating. Burial in New Haven Cemetery in the spring. Friends may call at the funeral home 749 W. Onondaga St. Saturday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Not sure if same Olin here as I have his sister as Helena, not Alberta. Helena may have been her middle name.

There was an Olin Klock that married and resided at 86 Stowe Street in Lowville, New York and had a son, Gary L. Klock. Not sure if same Olin.

She was born April 23, 1877, and died January 10, 1936 in Parish, Oswego Co. N.Y..

Notes for FRANK ELMER MILLER:

Frank Elmer Miller started a business in 1897. He called his business, "Frank E. Miller and Son." They started out making Sash Doors and Blinds. They also made Bowling Pins. During peak seasons they produced more than 16,000 bowling pins a month. The Company only does the rough turning of the pins before shipping them out for finishing. Frank's only son Lynn joined the business in 1924. The Mill was started on the North side of Route 69. In 1940 they moved the mill to the other side of the road where it is still today. In 1974 Miller Lumber manufactured for the State of New York over a mile and a half of twelve by twelve inch roadway marking for the Construction work on Route 81.----Information from the Family Tree of Jeanette Maynes.

Funeral Services for Frank Miller were had at his home in Parish, New York by the Rev. Kendall Scouten, Paster of the Parish Methodist Church, Bearers were Frank H. Whiteman, Rex Edick, Ward Wood, Fred Bliss, Lewis Degarmo and Preston L. Barney. Some information from the Lucille Courbat Miller's Scrapbooks.--- The Family

He married HAZEL LILLIAN SEWELL September 30, 1915. She was born September 04, 1888 in Louisiana, and died May 12, 1964.

Notes for ERNEST LORNE KLOCK:
Information from Dr. John Klock, California

"Ernest Klock was an engineer. He attended Louisiana State University, played on the football team and graduated in 1906 with a degree in engineering, specializing in sugar chemistry. He went to Cuba where he worked for the South Puerto Rican Sugar Company. He then was sent by the Company to the Dominican Republic in 1912 to develop a large sugar plantation at La Romana. The plantation was over 100,000 acres and Klock built a railroad, golf course, a large estate, worker housing, school ect.... typical of large corporate communities of that era. Klock was a friend of the dictator Trujillo (as you needed to be to succeed) and many notable visitors to the country stayed at his estate (as there were no commercial hotels on the island). The Charles Lindberg family was probably their most prominent guest at the time.

Klock married Hazel Sewell (descended from the English Parsons Clan) of New Orleans in 1915. Hazel's father was an engineer on the transcontinental railway and is featured in the picture of the placing of the "last spike" at Promontory, Utah. Hazel had two sons, Thomas Sewell Klock (b. 1916) and John Charles Klock (b. 1918) Klock constructed the La Romana sugar mill which was (and still may be) the largest sugar refinery in the world. He ran the mill until 1940 when he retired to Cheneyville, LA., building a large plantation property (Edgefield Plantation). In Cheneyville he ran a 300 acre sugar and cotton plantation, 200 acre cattle operation and the local bank, sugar mill at Meeker, LA., and a syrup mill with his brother Neil Haven Klock.

Both sons of Ernest (Tom and John) were born in New Orleans (there were no hospitals in the Dominican Republic), and the boys grew up in the La Romana estate until the age of 8, at which time they were sent away to the Sewanee Military Academy , Sewanee, Tennessee.
