Notes for JAMES R. BROWN:

James Raymond Brown

James Raymond Brown was the son of George W. Brown and Martha "Klock" Brown (Jonas, Adam, Adam Johannes, Adam, Colonel Jacob Klock and Hendrick Klock). James received his early education in the public school of Dolgeville, New York, but left school at the age of sixteen and went to work with his father on the farm.

George W. Brown was born in Brocketts Bridge, now Dolgeville, on February 28, 1835 and died in that village on May 16, 1900. George Brown was the son of James Brown and Sophia (Brockett) Brown. James was named after his Grandfather. His mother, Martha was born in Salisbury, New York on March 22, 1837 and died in Dolgeville in 1906. She was the daughter of Jonas and Sarepta (Carlisle) Klock.

James remained on the family farm working with his father for twelve years. He then went into the grocery business in Dolgeville with John J. Donovan. The firm was named Brown & Donovan and they conducted the business for three years. In 1905, James then took a course in the business college at Syracuse, New York and afterward worked as assistant postmaster and clerk in the post office in Dolgeville. Then on January 1, 1909 he began working for the Dolgeville Felt Shoe Company as a clerk and was in charge of the ticket and order office of the company.

James was also village clerk in Dolgeville for two years. James married Miss Ella E. Reilly on July 2, 1912 in Dolgeville. She was the daughter of John and Mary (Bergan) Reilly. She was educated in the public schools in Stratford. James was among the influential and public-spirited of Dolgeville. He was a member Dolgeville Lodge No. 796, F. & A.M.; Oriental Chapter No. 305, R.A.M.; and of Little Falls Commandery No 26, Knights Templar. He attended the Universalist church and in politics was a staunch republican. He also liked reading and automobiling. He took great pleasure in the society of his friends.

Notes for CHARLES ELMER KLOCK:

Man Badly Hurt, Falls From Tree

Condition At Hospital Declared Critical

Charles E Klock, 52, Theresa

Grocery and Meat Merchant Falls Nearly 30 Feet, Striking on His Head- Suffers Fractured Skull.

Charles E Klock, 52, Theresa grocery and meat merchant, is in a critical condition in the House of the Good Samaritan with a severe fracture of the skull and other injuries sustained Friday night when he fell from 25 to 30 feet from a tree, striking his head on some rocks when he landed.

X-ray pictures were to be taken today to determine to full extent of his injuries. Besides the skull fracture, he suffered a scalp wound, possible fractures of both arms at the wrist, an injury to the left leg, lacerations about the head, face and shoulders and bruises. He was cut above and below the right eye.

With three other men, Mr Klock, a butcher, was slaughtering a cow for his general store and meat market in Theresa. The accident happened on the Chester Bauter farm in the town of Theresa, located on a country road off the LaFargeville road about eight miles from Theresa.

The men with him were his son, Clarence L Klock; his brother- in- law, Varney Bartlett, employed on CE Klock's farm near Theresa, and John Dickhaut, tenant on the Bauter farm.

Mr. Klock had climbed up the tall tree to fasten some chain tackles by which the cow's carcass is held up while it is being dressed. The tree is located near a fence. Whether he lost his footing or the limb onto which he had climbed snapped is not definitely known.

In the plunge to the ground, his head struck some rocks and cobblestones scattered about the ground near the tree and he was knocked unconscious.

The injured man was placed in his own truck at the scene of the accident and hurried to the office of Dr Peter F Birkel in Theresa. Upon the physician's advice, he was brought to the hospital.

Mr Klock began to regain consciousness before he left Theresa. At the hospital, where he was received at 10:25 pm, he was attended by Dr HN Cooper.
