HISTORY OF HERKIMER COUNTY

Family Sketches Page 194

Klock, Reuben, Danube, was born in Danube August 11, 1818. His grandfather, George Klock, settled in this county early in the seventeenth century, and his father was John B. Klock, who lived to a good old age, reared a family and died in Danube. Reuben Klock married Barbara A. Bellinger, and has a family of nine children living, four sons and five daughters. Mr. Klock has given his children much land, and still owns about 607 acres. His children are as follows: Byron. Irving, Elinor, Emmett, Walter, Iantby, Maggie, Mary and Alice. Mr. Klock is a member of the Universalist church and is a staunch Democrat.

Notes for DAVID NELLIS:

Information on the John I. Nellis and Elizabeth Klock line from the Family Tree of Loomis-McWilliams Family Home Page (Internet)

St. John's reformed Church Record, Parents: John J.D. Nellis, Elesebeth Klock, Child, David was born May 5, 1816.

The Family Registry compiled by George Nellis of Ashtabula, Ohio in 1866 has the date of birth of David as May 5, 1806. Died Oct. 7, 1872, aged 66 years.

Personally, I think the 1806 date is correct. George Nellis who compiled the genealogy, was the Uncle of David Nellis, but will use the Church Records for this tree until it can be established that he was born in 1806.

The death of David Nellis was copied from the columns of an Elmore Paper.

"Our community was shocked on Tuesday last by the announcement that Mr. David Nellis had died on Sunday last at Rome, N. Y., and that his remains had been brought home for burial.

Mr. Nellis accompanied his wife to Rome, NY about the first of Sept. to have a cancer treated by a physician at that place. After the treatment had been commenced, Mrs. Nellis was confined to her bed and endured excruciating pains. Mr. Nellis was untiring in his attentions as a nurse, and would scarcely suffer anyone to wait on her but himself. The confinement and anxiety, together with a loss of rest, brought on a fever, which laid him on a sick bed for about two weeks. He was slowly recovering, when an attack to erysipelas caused his death on Sunday last. He was buried in the old cemetery here on Tuesday afternoon, attended by a large concourse of citizens.

Mr. Nellis came to this county about 17 years ago, and by his industry and business tact in the disposal of his farm products, and by rigid economy in his expenses, he had amassed a large fortune. The source from which he derived his greatest income, was loaning money at exorbitant rates of interest, and by discounting notes at such rates as the necessities of the sellers would compel them to take. While ignoring the law regulating the rate of interest to be charged, Mr. Nellis firmly believed it to be a perfectly fair business transaction to get such rates as he could.

He has had business relations with a very large portion of the community, and will be missed on our streets as much as any of our business men."

Notes for ELIZA DOLPH PERKINS:

Mrs. Eliza Perkins, was the widow of Wira Dolph, and the mother of Aaron Dolph. She had but one child by Wira Dolph, and none by David Nellis. That one was Aaron.

Wira Dolph was born June 15, 1812, married Eliza Perkins July 5, 1835, died June 8, 1849.

Aaron Dolph was born Aug 19, 1836,

Notes for GEORGE KLOCK NELLIS:

George Nellis was born Jan. 24, 1826.----The Family Registry compiled by George Nellis.

George Nellis was a Photographer in Chicago, Cook Co. Illinois.

Notes from his Family Registry:

Louisa left me for the first time, while in Dayton, Ohio on the 23 of June 1861. She left me the second time in 1880. It occurred, I think the same month, and on the same day of the month, and while living in Chicago, Ill. She sued me for a divorce, and her bill of charges was so false I left the state, and refused to defend my case, and the consequence was, she was granted a divorce, Oct 28th. 1880, by Judge Tuley, of the Chicago Courts.

The following I cut from the Chicago Tribune of Oct. 28, 1880 as it appeared in the Court Decisions in the columns of that paper.

Judge Tuley yesterday granted a divorce to Louisa J. Nellis from George K. Nellis on the ground of cruelty.

The Chicago Times of the same date had the following report in its columns; "DIVORCES, Judge Tuley---1233 Louisa J. Nellis from George K. Nellis, decree for Divorce for cruelty."

Notes for EVA KLOCK:

Evaline Klock, wife of Peter P. Walrath, d. Aug. 2, 1865. (According to Frothingham's "History of Montgomery County", Eveline was also spelled Evaline, and she was the daughter of George G. Klock of St. Johnsville.)

Ann Eve, wife of Peter H. Walrath, d. Dec. 21, 1848, age 85 yrs 9 mos 16 days (The date of death for Ann Eve, wife of Peter H. Walrath, was listed as Dec. 21, 1818. According to the will of Peter H., his wife was alive at the time the will was probated on Aug. 1, 1831. I assumed that the date of death was a typo, or misreading, and that her listed age at death was correct. I corrected the death date to the year 1848.)

From the Family Tree of Jerry Walrath

If she died in 1865 and lived to be 85 that would make her born in 1780. If she died in 1848 and died at 85, then she was born in 1763. I have her born in 1792, so if she died at 85, she would have died in 1877. Anna was from a large family and her birthday could be wrong as well. I have her mother, Catherine Bellinger born in 1748 and giving birth to her first child, Sophia in 1767 at the age of 19 and her last child, Evaline born in 1792 at the age of 44. I have changed the death date to Dec. 21, 1848 and her birth date to birth date to 1780. If her mother's birth date is correct, that would make her giving birth to Eveline at the age of 32. At any rate, the date of birth and deaths of Evaline Klock are in question...

Evaline Klock lived in Stone Rauby, N.Y. or what was known as Palatine Bridge.----

Notes for ELIZABETH ANN JONES:

Obituary of Elizabeth Ann Jones Klock December 6, 1919 Pulaski, New York

" A GOOD WOMAN FALLEN ASLEEP "

Elizabeth Jones was born in the town of Scriba, Oswego Co. , eighty-nine years ago, July 29th. Nearly seventy years ago, she was united in marriage with Simeon Klock, who died sixteen years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Klock moved to this village about fifty years ago. Early in life Mrs. Klock became a member of the Congregational church and was always happy in the privilege of attending the church services. She was devoted to her home and made it a joy spot for her husband and children. She had exceptional qualities in the accomplishment of sustaining friendships. To know her was to love her and it was her great delight to reciprocate kindness shown her by her friends. Though she had come so near the four score and ten almost a score of years beyond the allotted time, she bore those years gracefully, and kept an attitude towards life, which many younger would envy. A little over a week before she departed, she suffered the sad experience of having her only son, Arthur, taken by death. She was eager to do for him in his last sickness and did all she could. She leaves three daughters, Mrs. Louis J. Clark, and miss Adaline S. Klock in her home circle of this village and Hrs. William Scott, of Pittsburgh, Pa. all of whom were with her when she fell into the rest and sleep for which she was fully prepared and into which she was not afraid to enter. The funeral was held from the home, corner of Bridge and Church streets, Saturday at two o'clock, the Rev. H.A. Lawrence, pastor of the Congregational Church officiating, Friends coming to attend the funeral were Mrs. Eleanor Turner of Scriba, a sister of Mrs. Klock and the last surviving member of his family from which Mrs. Klock sprang; her son in law, Mr. William G. Scott, of Pittsburgh, Pa., Mr. C. Edwards Jones of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Jillette, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Avery, Maysell Markham of Syracuse, Mrs. Isaac Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Markham of Lysander; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Alexander and Mrs. Frances Alexandr of Fulton; Mrs. Florence Norris of Oswego.

Notes for HENRY KLOCK:

Henry Klock ran a woolen mill in Elgin, then bought the woolen mill in Fayette, Iowa in 1866. His son, George remained in Elgin, probably to run that mill while Henry ran the one in Fayette. The large industrial mills that were being developed around Rail Road centers put the smaller woolen mills out of business. The land between the old mill run and the Volga River as it went around the bend on the west side of today's Fayette, became known as Klock's Island as the water on both sides and in the old days was only crossed by river fords.

Henry and his son George Klock cleared out the brush and cut nearly all the trees on the Island except the walnuts and butternuts. That cutting developed the present grove of nut trees. Today there is a Park on Klock Island.

Notes for JOHN LASHER:

John Lasher was in the Civil War. Volunteered for service on 26 Aug. 1862. He was in Co. A 115 Regiment New York. He served in several other regiments in the Civil War and was at Harper's Ferry, West Va. where his company the 8th corps, was captured Sept. 15, 1862 and sent to a Parole Camp. Later exchanged and the company returned to Washington DC.

John, at one time served with Capt. C.N. Ballou, who would later marry John's sister Anna Margaret Lasher.

John was shot in the left ankle at Olustee, Fla., on Feb. 20, 1864. He was captured the same day and the colored troops that were with him who were left to die on the battle field. He was taken to Tallahassee, Florida. He was held prisoner two weeks and then sent to Andersonville Prison for eight and a half weeks. John got little or no medical treatment for his wound. His ankle became so infected that he had to remove the bullet. On Nov. 19, 1864 he was exchanged and sent to Maryland, then he went to Annapolis Hospital for a short stay and then to Chestnut Hill Hospital, Phila, Pa., where he stayed until furloughed home the 15th. of June, 1865.

Later he had the bullet he removed from his ankle mounted in gold and carried it as a pocket watch until his death. He passed the watch on to his grandson, Clifford Pickard.

After returning home after the Civil War he joined a group from Fort Plain and Nelliston to search for gold. They had some success in the lower Rockies but not enough to start a mining operation.

John with his father, George Lasher and his brother, Dewitt Lasher built a home on the west side of North Main Street in Nelliston, New York. In 1871 John built a three story brick home with a ball room on the first floor. The home ended up in foreclosure and in 1889 burned. In 1905 John built a market and house on the east side Stone Arabia Street. There he operated a meat market for many years.

His daughter, Maude Lasher lived in a house in back of the store. His wife Mary lived in a house with his other daughter, Ada Lasher Temple until her death at the age of Ninety years. She died in 1941 and is buried on the Lord lot in Fort Plain Cemetary, next to her mother, Adah Nancy Bell Sterling.

John died on 24 Jan. 1915 and is buried in the Fort Plain Cemetery on the Pickard lot.

John Lasher

John Lasher, (Magdalena Klock, Fredrick Klock, Honjost Klock, Hendrick Klock) was born in St. Johnsville, New York on August 24, 1842. John was the son of George Lasher and Magdalena Klock. Fredrick Klock married Magdalena Lara Klock, his second cousin, so John had two connections back to Hendrick Klock.

John Lasher served in the Civil War. He volunteered on August 26, 1862 with Co. A , 115th Regiment of the New York Volunteer Infantry. For volunteering his family received $25.00 from the town of St. Johnsville and $48.00 from the County of Montgomery. The 115th moved on August 30, 1862 to Sandy Hook, Md. John was assigned to the 8th Corps at Harper's Farry, West Virginia where his unit was captured by Col. Niles and on September 15, 1862. His unit was sent to a Parole Camp until exchanged in November 1862 and sent to Washington DC. John served in several units during the Civil War, taking part in several battles. On some point the served with Capt. C.N. Ballon who would later marry John's sister, Anna Margaret Lasher.

At a battle at Olustee, Florida on Feburary 20, 1864, John was shot in the left ankle and captured by the Southern Forces. Several colored troops that fell in battle at Olustee were shot or left to die in the field while John was taken prisoner. He was taken to Tallahassee, Florida for a couple weeks and then sent to Andersonville prison. He was there for about eight weeks, receiving no medical attention for the injured ankle it became infected and John had to remove the bullet. On Nov. 19, 1864 John was exchanged and taken to Annapolis Maryland Hospital for a couple weeks and then furloughed to Chestnut Hill Hospital until he was discharged the 15th of June in 1865 because of his wound. John kept the bullet he took from his ankle and had it mounted in gold and put on a pocket watch which he carried until he died. He passed this watch on to his grandson, Clifford Pickard.

After the Civil War, he joined a group from Fort Plain and Nellison to search for gold in the lower Rockies. He had some success but not enough to open a mine. John returned to Nellison, New York and married Mary E. Sterling on October 9, 1870. John's father, George Lasher and his brother, Dewitt Lasher built homes on the west side of North Main Street in Nellison. In 1871 John built a three story brick home which included a large ball room. This venture ended up in foreclosure and in 1889 the building burned. In 1905, John built a home with a meat market in front which he operated for several years. John and Mary had two children (that I know of) Maud and Ada Lasher. John died on Jan 24, 1915 and is buried in the Fort Plain Cemetery, on Pickard Lot. Mary Lasher died at 90 years of age in 1941. She is buried on the Lord lot in Fort Plain next to her mother, Adah Nancy Bell Sterling.

207. AMELIA⁶ KLOCK (ARCHIBALD⁵, CORNELIUS⁴, JACOB GEORGE³, JOHANGUERGH², HENDRICK¹) was born August 29, 1837 in Fort Plain, Montgomery

Co., New York, and died April 05, 1912 in Grand Meadow, Mower, Minnesota. She married WILLIAM ANSON DAVID 1852. He was born August 09, 1817 in Syracuse, Onondaga, New York, and died April 05, 1877 in Chatfield, Fillmore, Minnesota.

Notes for AMELIA KLOCK:

Amelia was the second wife of William David.

Notes for WILLIAM ANSON DAVID:

The 1870 Fillmore County, Minnesota census records film number 0830423 page #207 lists William David as a farmer born in NY. It also lists his wife as Amelia, 34, and five children. The census lists William as being 46. That would make him born about 1824, which would make him 12 years old when his first son was born. The Obit, says he was born Aug. 9, 1817.

DEATH:

Obituary notices from Chatfield, Fillmore/Olmsted county, Minn.

"William A. David Esq., aged 61 years."

"The deceased had been a resident of this vicinity for twelve years or more and was looked up on as an industrious, quiet citizen. He leaves a wife and several sons and daughters to mourn n his loss, with whom we deeply sympathize."

WILL:

A copy of the will of William A. David is in the possession of Darrel J. Ayler and read as:

"To all whom it may concern: I William A. David of the town of Jordan of the county of Fillmore and state of Minnesota, being of sound mind and memory do make, publish and declare this my last Will and Testament. First I give Wm J. David, Emma J. Klock, Charles A. David, George A. David, Margaret L. Johnson and Carrie M. Gile fifty cents each they being my children by Sovina David, my first wife. Second, I give grand convey and bequeath for the use of my present family consisting in all eight in no.(number). My wife Amelia David and seven children named as follows. Maryett David, Willis A. David, Hiram David, Marven and Melvin David, Cora S. David and John H. David all the rest of my estate both real and personal of every name and value to have and hold the same unto their sole use and benefit forever there shall be no division made between the last eight until such time as there shall be no minor children then if any remain it shall be divided equal. Third I nominate and appoint Amelia David of the Town of Jordan, County of Fillmore and state of Minnesota Executrix (sic) of this my last Will and Testament. Fourth I duly direct that Amelia David executrix of this my last Will and Testament make suitable provisions from this estate for the education and support for the last seven children above named and that my said administrator have the care and custody of said children during their minority in witness whereof, I have set my hand and seal this 28th day of December A. D. 1876." This will was probated in the Village of Preston, county of Fillmore on the 4th day of June AD

Information received from David Elton indicates that William was married twice and had a total of eighteen children from these marriages. It is said that his first wife went insane. She believed that she had demons in her chest, which drove her out of her mind. William David gave her a case knife as she wanted to cut it out. (That pacified her). It is believed that she is buried in Waukesha.

William then met the Klock family and later married Amelia.

He was a cobbler by trade. He also raised broomcorn and cared for it. In the winter, he made his brooms and sold them for .25 cents each. He would travel from town to town. Then W. A. David left Wisconsin for Chatfield, Minnesota when Ed was 6 months old, which would have been about April 1865. Their reason for moving to Chatfield was that Jim their second born was a good business man, a blacksmith and wagon maker by trade. He made it look rosy to his father, William, who decided to move to Chatfield. He wrote to his wife and told her to sell what she had and come to Chatfield.

From the Family Tree of Darrel Ayler.

George Warden Klock

George Warden Klock (Archibald, Cornelius, Jacob G., Johanguergh (Old George) Hendrick Klock was born September 21, 1839 in Fort Plain, New York. He was the son of Archibald Klock and Hannah Moore. He married Emma Jane David on October 4, 1857 in Waukesha, Wisconsin. George Warden Klock was 5'6" ½ inches tall and had dark a completion and had dark eyes and bleached hair. George was a carpenter by trade. George enlisted to fight in the Civil War in April of 1861 with Company F of the 5th Wisconsin Infantry. Luck was not with George and he was stricken with measles on his first day out in the field. He was transported on an open wagon and in the rain to and ended up in the hospital. He later returned to his regiment but was unable to return to duty. George was discharged, sent home to die on December 9, 1861. With the love and care of his wife and family, and change of climate, he recovered from his disease. From December 1861 to February 1864, George stayed home to fight his illness. George was a patriot and on February 17, 1864 he reenlisted in the 2nd. Battery from Wisconsin where he served until the end of the war. George had a cough that stayed with him the rest of his life. George and his family moved to Washington State in 1902 in hopes that the climate would help his condition. George died March 13, 1905 in Spokane, Washington and is buried in Fairmont Cemetery in Spokane.

George and Emma Jane had four children, Isabelle, Ida, Carrie and Katlee.
