Notes for LEON NELSON HERDMAN:

I found your Klock Connections while searching for information on my family. Arthur and Mary Lampman Herdman are my great-great grandparents. As you have listed in your information, they had a son Frank, who was my great grandfather. Frank married Minnie Herdman (1st cousins) and they had one son. You have his name listed in your information as Frank Jr. This is incorrect. His name was Leon Nelson Herdman. He married Eunice Knapp and they had twin sons, Richard Frank and Robert Edward.

I was thrilled to find the background information on my great-great grandmother and love the connection to Fort Klock, Nellis Tavern and the like.

Thanks for all your hard work and research.

Klock services set today

Pam Smith (Staff Writer)

Funeral services for Texas Tech professor Sheldon Klock Jr., 62, will be at 2:30 p.m. today at St. Christopher's Episcopal Church. He will be buried at Resthaven Memorial Park.

Klock, who taught Portuguese and Spanish in the Classical and Modern Languages department, had been at Tech since 1963.

Klock died Monday at University Medical Center of heart failure. Peder Christiansen, chairman of the Department of Classical and Modern Languages and Literature, said they had known he was ill, but his death still came as a surprise.

"We were concerned from some time," Christiansen said. "His death came so quickly that it was still unexpected."

During his tenure at Tech, Klock was a member of the South Central Modern Language Association, the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese and the Southwest Council of Latin American Studies. He was also a member of Alpha Chi and Sigma Delta Phi honor societies.

One of Klock's recent achievements came last year when his book about Brazilian novelist Aluisio Azevedo was published in Canada.

Klock was born July 4, 1938, in Evanston, Ill. He graduated as the valedictorian from Edinburg High School in 1956 and attended Pan American University in Edinburg. Klock also attended Tulane University in New Orleans where he received his master's and doctorate's degrees in romance language. During this time, he was named a Woodrow Wilson Fellow and received a National Defense Foreign Language Fellowship.

He is survived by his wife, Celea Reyes, daughter Lillian Greathouse, son Sheldon C. Klock III and a grandson.
