Enjoyed CB radio and making Adirondack pack baskets

HERKIMER—William Roy Klock Sr. “Windy,” 62 of Shells Bush Road, died Thursday afternoon, April 29, 1999, in Little Falls Hospital with his family at his bedside, after a long courageous battle with cancer.

A lifelong Herkimer resident, he was born Nov. 12, 1936, in Herkimer, son of the late Kenneth S. Sr. and Rosella Mae (Rose) Mickle Klock. He was a graduate of Herkimer High School class of 1954. On Sept. 1, 1956, he married Elizabeth Walters in Herkimer, a loving union of 25 years until her passing Jan. 19, 1982. For more than 22 years, he was a machinist for Herkimer Tool and Machinery, retiring in 1975. Anyone who knew Bill could appreciate his positive attitude and good humor, dealing with the challenges life gave him. He was of the Methodish faith. He served with and was honorable discharged from the National Guard.

An avid outdoors man, he was a member of the East Herkimer Fish and Game Club and the Dolgeville Rod and Gun Club. He was a “CB-er” and went by the handle Windy.

He also belonged to the Herkimer Polish Club and Little Falls Moose Lodge 615. His hobby was making Adirondack pack baskets, and he was quite accomplished at doing them. Bill’s family always came first. He loved his children, grandchildren and great granddaughter.

Surviving him are four sons, William Roy Jr. and his wife Bonnie Klock of Little Falls, James Robert and his wife Lisa Klock, Timothy John and his wife Linda Klock, and Larry Michael Klock, a daughter Donna Jean and her husband Gregory Hunter, all of Herkimer; three brothers and their wives, Howard and Cathy Klock, Kenneth Jr. and Joyce Klock, all of Herkimer, Vernon and Janet Klock of Little Falls; two sisters and their husbands, Rose and Ronald Rockwell of Herkimer, June and Robert McPherson of Mohawk, five grandchildren, Lorraine, Sonja and Courtney Klock, Colby and Shelby Hunter; and great granddaughter, Marissa Hudson, several nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was preceded in death by a brother, James Klock and a sister, Sharon Herringshaw.

Funeral service will be Sunday at 1 p.m. in Fenner Funeral Home Inc., 115 Court St. with the Rev. David Oertel officiating. Internment will follow in Mountain View Memorial Gardens, town of Little Falls.

Calling hours are Saturday from 2-4 and 6-8 p.m.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society. Envelopes will be available at the funeral home.

Members of the Little Falls Moose Lodge 615 are asked to meet at the funeral home Saturday at 5:45 p.m. for ritualistic services.

Additional Information: William Roy Klock was the son of Kenneth Sherman Klock (Sherman O., Jacob A., Luther, John J. Jr., John J., Johannes, and Hendrick Klock) and Rossella Mae Mickle. He married Elizabeth Delia Walters.

Miss Bonnie V. Klock, Halesboro, Killed Instantly in Car Accident.

Gouverneur

July 5.--Five persons were injured, one fatally, about 8 last night when a 1935 coupe in which they were riding swerved off the highway and rolled over 3.1 miles northwest of Gouverneur beyond Natural Dam.

Fatally injured was Miss Bonniebelle Venita Klock, 19, Gouverneur, R.D.1.

Also injured were Miss Lucinda Irene Klock, 14, and her brother, Franklin Eugene Klock, 17, both of Gouverneur, R.D. 1; Gordon E. Peck, 23, Gouverneur, R.D. 5, and John L. McNally, 18, Of 9 John street, Gouverneur.

All the injured were taken by Sprague ambulance to the Edward John Noble hospital. Miss Bonniebelle Klock died at the hospital at 9 of a fractured skull. She had also sustained lacerations of the right hand and abrasions about the face.

Franklin Klock sustained abrasions about the head and elbows and contusions. McNally suffered abrasions of the face, head, arms and back, while Peck suffered lacerations of the upper and lower lips, lacerations of the face and back. All but Franklin Klock were hospitalized. He was released shortly after examination and treatment. Gouverneur state police conducted the investigation. Authorities reported that the coupe was owned and operated by Peck. The vehicle swerved off to the right as Peck was endeavoring to negotiate a curve in the road in Bolton's Woods about one and a half miles from Natural Dam. The vehicle swerved from one side of the highway to the other and back again and finally turned over landing upright diagonally and facing the opposite direction from which it was traveling. As the car rolled over, the two girls fell through the canvas roof and landed in the middle of the highway. Franklin Klock stated that he jumped clear of the vehicle as it swerved.

The five people were on their way to Sylvia Lake to attend Fourth-of-July festivities.

Dr. Robert V. Persson, Newton Falls, St. Lawrence county coroner, ordered release of the body of Miss Bonniebelle Klock. She was removed to the Sprague funeral home.

Miss Klock is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Klock; six sisters, Mrs. Sterling (Ordetta) Sharpe, Madrid; Lucinda, 14; Beverly, 12; Zelpha, 10; Martha, 8 and Frances, 6, all of Gouverneur; seven brothers, Basil Klock, Morris Klock, Henry Klock, all of Balmat; George Klock and Donald Klock, both of Star Lake, and Franklin and Frederick Klock, both of Gouverneur.

Zebina Robert Klock was born on June 12, 1846 near the Klock cemetery where the dam is now located. He was the eldest son of the late Nehemiah and Elmira Klock. When a young man he was engaged in farming but later moved to Little Falls where he was foreman carpenter under the late William Dorr. He married Marie Freeman and by this union two sons Frank of Little Falls and Horatio of Albany were born. He later married Gertrude Robinson in 1876. Two children were born to them Lewis who is at home and Mrs. Helen Glenner of St. Johnsville. He moved from Little Falls in 1889 and bought the present property from late Eugene Thumb. He was engaged in the lumber, feed and grain business and the making of wooden hoops. Later he was engaged in the manufacture of paper boxes and at the time of his death was engaged in the grocery business. His sudden death brings a shock to the community. He took a great interest in all political affairs and was a man with a keen knowledge and a kind heart. He leaves several grandchildren.

Those who attended the funeral from out of town were Roratio Klock of Albany, Warren Schall and Meriton Robinson of Schenectady, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Robinson and mother of Frankfort, Mrs. Ella Hulton and son of Esperance, Milton Shaddock of Bouckville, C. E. Klock of Little Falls, others were present from Fort Plain, Little Falls, Dolgeville. The funeral services were under the direction of C. C. Lull and were held from the Grace Christian Church of which he was a member. A large number of friends were present. Rev. R. M. Seely and Rev. H. C. Ficken officiated. At the grave the full Masonic rites were administered.

Mr. Klock was secretary of the
for a number of years.

Additional Information: Zebina Robert Klock was the son of Nehemiah Klock (Johann George, George I., Johannes, Han Henrich and Hendrick Klock) and Almira Shall. Zebina Robert Klock married Gertrude Marie Freeman and Anna Robinson.
