She married (1) ROBERT RICHARDSON. He was born June 01, 1834 in Canada, and died Aft. 1900. She married (2) CHARLES CRAMER April 14, 1859 in Little Falls, Herkimer County, New York. He was born December 16, 1824 in Herkimer, New York, and died December 18, 1876 in Claremont, Minnesota.

Notes for FIDELIA KLOCK:
I believe Fidelia was married three times. She was also married to a George H. Prim, Prait or Purim. She also married Charles Cramer, not Conner. She was also married to Robert Richardson. If George H. Prait was her third husband, Maybe they lived in North Dakota where it is said she is buried.

It is believed that Fidelia is buried in Bowman, North Dakota lived at Lost Creek, Wis. SOK.

Not sure what to make of this census. It said she was the mother of three children, all living. Married for 36/44 years. She was 65 when census was taken, that would mean she married Robert Richardson in 1864. But, Charles Rushford Cramer, was born August 17, 1862, Gertrude Cramer on January 20, 1866, and Rose, September 23, 1867. She did not marry Robert until after the death of her first husband, Charles Cramer who died December 18, 1876.

Estella Richardson 22 (born Aug. 1877)
Ida Richardson 20 (born Jan. 1880)
George Richardson 16 (born June 1883)

According to this 1880 Census, Robert Richardson was married to Kate. That means he did not marry Fidelia until after 1880. And all the children were born to his first wife, Kate. Except George, who may have been the son of Fidelia and Robert, as he was not born until June of 1883. But I don't think George's mother was Fidelia as on the 1900 Census Fidelia put down she had three children, still living. Those three children would be Charles, Gertrude and Rose.
