More About GERTRUDE FULLER:

Burial: August 08, 1977, Maple Lawn Cemetery, Dugway, NY

Notes for MARVIN MARCELLUS WATERS:

Marvin was born in Millington, Michigan on April 23, 1874, the third child of Elon M. and Diantha (Klock) Waters. At the age of 4 he moved with his family to New York.

In 1900 he was a cheesemaker, living in the town of Turin. On Christmas Day, 1901 in Lowville he married Gertie Fuller, daughter of Eugene and Alice [Edick] Fuller. By the year 1910 they had 6 children, Majel B. born December 10, 1902, Margaret C. born 1904 and died young, George A. born January 20, 1905, Eugene E. born April 5, 1907 and Alice E. born January 25, 1909. Marvin was a dairy farmer and the family was living in Lowville, New York.

Sometime between 1910 and 1920 the family moved to Dolgeville, Herkimer County, New York. At that time Marvin worked at the shoe factory as a ribbon stringer. They had two more children, Horace born 1909 and died in 1914 and Shirley born 1916.

By 1930 he and his family had moved to 274 East Clark Street in Ilion, Herkimer County, New York and he was working as a repairman for the typewriter factory.

During the 40's and 50's he owned a farm in Pulaski. On the farm he raised mink, made and sold dairy products and what ever they could to make a living. He had an old Maxwell that he took to the feed mill and filled it to capacity between the front and rear seats. Finally the old Maxwell broke one to many times and he buried it on the farm piece by piece, saying it was no good to anyone. He sold the farm in 1959 and they lived part time with his daughter Alice in Woodville and the rest of the time with his son George. He was a member of the Masons.

Marvin passed away July 2, 1959 of Congestive Cardiac Failure at the home of his son George in Durhamville, NY. At the time of his death he was a retired cheesemaker for the John Muller Creameries. He is buried at the Dugway Cemetery with his wife Gertie, his son George, his wife Blance and two of their children, his daughter Majel and her husband Kenneth.

Resided Watson, NY--SOK
