JR.*⁴, *JOHN J.*³, *JOHANNES J.*², *HENDRICK*¹) was born April 23, 1874 in Millington, Michigan, and died July 02, 1959 in Durhamville, New York. He married GERTRUDE FULLER December 25, 1901 in Lowville, New York, daughter of EUGENE FULLER and ALICE EDICK. She was born September 07, 1884 in Montague, New York, and died August 05, 1977 in Utica, NY..

Notes for MARVIN MARCELLUS WATERS:
Marvin was born in Millington, Michigan on April 23, 1874, the third child of Elon M. and Diantha (Klock) Waters. At the age of 4 he moved with his family to New York.

In 1900 he was a cheesemaker, living in the town of Turin. On Christmas Day, 1901 in Lowville he married Gertie Fuller, daughter of Eugene and Alice [Edick] Fuller. By the year 1910 they had 6 children, Majel B. born December 10, 1902, Margaret C. born 1904 and died young, George A. born January 20, 1905, Eugene E. born April 5, 1907 and Alice E. born January 25, 1909. Marvin was a dairy farmer and the family was living in Lowville, New York.

Sometime between 1910 and 1920 the family moved to Dolgeville, Herkimer County, New York. At that time Marvin worked at the shoe factory as a ribbon stringer. They had two more children, Horace born 1909 and died in 1914 and Shirley born 1916.

By 1930 he and his family had moved to 274 East Clark Street in Ilion, Herkimer County, New York and he was working as a repairman for the typewriter factory. All the children had left home except Shirley.

During the 40's and 50's he owned a farm in Pulaski. On the farm he raised mink, made and sold dairy products and what ever they could to make a living. He had a old Maxwell that he took to the feed mill and filled the it to capacity between the front and rear seats. Finally the old maxwell broke one to many times and he buried it on the farm piece by piece, saying it was no good to anyone. He sold the farm in 1959 and they lived part time with his daughter Alice in Woodville and the rest of the time with his son George. He was a member of the Masons.

Marvin passed away July 2, 1959 of Congestive Cardiac Failure at the home of his son George in Durhamville, NY. At the time of his death he was a retired cheesemaker for the John Muller Creameries. He is buried at the Dugway Cemetary with his wife Gertie, his son George, his wife Blance and two of their children, his daughter Majel and her husband Kenneth.

Resided Watson, NY--SOK

Notes for ISAAC B. CARLTON:

Alice M Klock married Isaac Carlton of Saginaw, MI abt. 1901, they lived in Saginaw and had four sons, Harold b.1903 (my grandfather), William b.1907, Francis b. 1910 and Thoral b. 1913. The family moved from Saginaw to Detroit sometime between the 1920 and 1930 census. The 1930 census shows Fanny (age 80) living with Alice and Isaac in Detroit. Isaac died in 1963 and I'm not sure but I believe Alice died about 1965. I remember her as an old woman, with a high pitched sing-song voice, she was a little on the heavy side and had trouble walking so she used a cane. I believe she lived alone at that time and from what I remember it was a typical "old lady" house, (not to be un-PC) with lots of antique furniture and such. Going by my Grandfather, Isaac and Alice must have been wonderful parents because Harold Carlton was the finest man I ever knew. He was smart, sweet, kind, and a-lot of fun.-- Mark Mayville

That would place his date of birth in 1888-89. According to Jacob C. Klock delayed birth record, he was born in 1884. According to this burial record he would have been born in 1886. The 1910 Census he was 22, making him born in 1888. According to 1920 Census Records, Jacob was 34 in 1920. This would make him born in 1886. There is a Jacob Clock found in the 1900 Census as a ward age 11, giving his birth as Jan. 1889. Parents: Unknown. If this Jacob is my grandfather, he would have been born in Jan. of 1889. Making him 18-19 when married.

He may have been born in Sanilac County and not Tuscola County. He told me his birth records were destroyed in a Court House Fire. There was a fire in Sanilac County, Michigan. There was also a Court House fire Tuscola County. There are no records of his birth in Tuscola County or Sanilac County.

In order to draw Soc. Sec. he got a delayed birth record. He just wanted to draw his Social Security early. The death record is information given by the family, from what information they had, so I do not believe it is correct. If he was born in 1886 he was only 17 when he was married and not 19 as he claimed. So I am going to use July 14, 1887 for his date of birth. But I think he was really born in Jan. of 1889.

I am not convinced that his father was Ira Klock. But, Grampa did put on his birth record that his father was Ira. Jacob used to hang around his Uncle Grantison Klock who lived in Cadillac, Michigan. So I will go with Ira Klock, being the father of Jacob until I can find proof that he was not.

Notes for JOHN MORRIS KLOCK:
SOK Genealogy

This boy is the owner of the old gun, carried in the war of the Revolution, by John J. Klock. Tradition says that this gun was brought over from Germany by the "first" Klock to come to this country. Since the time when John J. carried it in the Revolution, it has been in the "hands" of a "John Klock". When Isaac and his family moved to Wisconsin, the barrel was shortened and it was used by successive generations as an arm for small game the country afforded. A new stock has also been added, so it bears little resemblance to its original appearance.

John Morris Klock, so far as we know, is the last to carry on the line of "Klock" from the large family of Isaac and Lany Ann Nellis Klock. He resides with his mother at Fond Du Lac, Wisconsin.---SOK

Below is an article that appeared in Issue 2 of The Klock Family Newsletter.

John Morris Klock (Eugene Nellis Klock, Isaac Klock Jr., Isaac Putnam Klock, John J. Klock Jr., Johannes Klock, Hendrick Klock) was born in Fond Du Lac, Wisconsin Oct. 26, 1918. Son of Eugene Nellis Klock and Ethel Irish. Eugene Klock died when John was 4 years old so John does not remember much about him. I had the honor and privilege to meet Jack, as he likes to be called, this August. He needed a ride to the Family Reunion because he does not drive anymore and really wanted to go to the Reunion. Jack is almost 83 and lives alone in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Ann Arbor was on my way to the Reunion so my wife and I gave him a ride. We talked a lot on the way to the Reunion and on the way home. I hope everyone at the Reunion got to talk with him. He was the Gentleman dressed in the yellow suit in the front of the picture below.. (note: check the Klock Family Reunion Photo) He told me about when he got married to Margret Post, they spent their honeymoon in the middle of a golf course on a blanket and at that time he had to hitch-hike to get around. He soon got a job as a taxi cab driver. He worked his way through College, driving cab and boxing. He got to be a pretty good boxer too, even if he was hit 3500 times in his right eye. He got his masters in Math and began teaching. He was a Professor at Michigan State University in Ann Arbor, Michigan and he also taught in Canada for a few years. Later he gave up teaching to start his own business in Advertising and Publicity.

Jack and his wife, Margaret had three children, John Benjamin, James W. and Eric Putnam Klock. Jack told me I bare a strong resemblance to his son James. I could tell by the way he talked about his children, he was proud of all of them. One works in California in Advertising. One is an ex-policeman turned, Attorney and now lives in Arizona, and his youngest son, Eric lives in Michigan and works for a Bedding Company.

I met John Morris Klock, or Jack as he likes to be called in 2001. John lived in Ann Arbor, Michigan (2001) My wife, Darla, and I and our son Josh gave him a ride to the Klock Family Reunion that was held at Fort Klock. I sent out several notices about the reunion and John contacted me. He did not drive anymore and wanted to attend the reunion. He told me this would probably be the last time he would see Fort Klock. We had quite a talk with John on the way to the reunion and on the return trip to Michigan. He told me several stories about his life and growing up in Wisconsin. How he met his wife and how they spent their first night together on a blanket on the green of a Golf Course in Ann Arbor. His life a boxer, taxi cab driver, Teacher, College Professor and his adventures in the advertising business. He told me about the gun used by John J. Klock in the Revolution. Now in the hands of his son, James. I could write a book from all the stories he told me. He told me I reminded him and I looked like his son, James, called me James several time on our trip. (He was 84 at the time.) His picture is on line on this web site. Photos of the 2001 Reunion. He is in the first row, sitting in the chair with the yellow jacket. A simple man who enjoyed hot dogs, with mustard, French fries and a Vanilla Shake, and yet a very intelligent, complex man. Proud of his family and his heritage, and like a lot us, considers "Fort Klock" his home.

My sincere condolences go out to his family.
