Klock services set today

Pam Smith (Staff Writer)

Funeral services for Texas Tech professor Sheldon Klock Jr., 62, will be at 2:30 p.m. today at St. Christopher's Episcopal Church. He will be buried at Resthaven Memorial Park.

Klock, who taught Portuguese and Spanish in the Classical and Modern Languages department, had been at Tech since 1963.

Klock died Monday at University Medical Center of heart failure. Peder Christiansen, chairman of the Department of Classical and Modern Languages and Literature, said they had known he was ill, but his death still came as a surprise.

"We were concerned from some time," Christiansen said. "His death came so quickly that it was still unexpected." During his tenure at Tech, Klock was a member of the South Central Modern Language Association, the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese and the Southwest Council of Latin American Studies. He was also a member of Alpha Chi and Sigma Delta Phi honor societies.

One of Klock's recent achievements came last year when his book about Brazilian novelist Aluisio Azevedo was published in Canada.

Klock was born July 4, 1938, in Evanston, Ill. He graduated as the valedictorian from Edinburg High School in 1956 and attended Pan American University in Edinburg. Klock also attended Tulane University in New Orleans where he received his master's and doctorate's degrees in romance language. During this time, he was named a Woodrow Wilson Fellow and received a National Defense Foreign Language Fellowship.

He is survived by his wife, Celea Reyes, daughter Lillian Greathouse, son Sheldon C. Klock III and a grandson.

Tom wrote a letter to his Children, Grandchildren, and Great Grandchildren before he died. Tish send it to me along with the Obituary and his Celebration of live which was read at funeral. I met Tom and Tish over the internet several years ago. I regret I have never met them in person. Even thro I never met Tom and Tish, I feel like I have know them. Below is the letter to his children.

A LETTER TO MY CHILDREN, GRANDCHILDREN AND GREAT GRANDCHILDREN

There are moments in life when you miss someone so much that you just can't stand it.
When the door of happiness closes, another one opens, but often times we look at the closed door that we don't see the one which has been opened for us.
Don't go for looks, they can deceive. Don't go for wealth; even that fades away.
Go for someone who makes you smile because it takes only a smile to make a dark day seem bright.
Find the one who makes your heart smile.
Dream what you want to dream; go where you want to go; be what you want to be, because you have only live and one chance this go round do to all the things you want to do.
May you have enough happiness to make you sweet, enough trials to make you strong, enough sorrow to keep you human, enough hope to make you happy.
The happiest of people don't necessarily have the best of everything they just make the most of everything that comes their way.
The brightest future will always be based on a forgotten past; you can't go on well in life until you let go of your past heartaches and failures.
When you were born, you were crying, and everyone around you was smiling. Live your live so at the end, you're the one who is smiling and everyone around you is crying.

Notes from the Family Tree of Donna Gibson:

Her hobbies were sewing clothes for her five daughters, bowling, and going to football and baseball games. Her favorite baseball team was the Anaheim Angels. She loved Nolan Ryan and was able to be present to one of the first games that he threw a no-hitter.

She died of emphysema when she was a month short of turning 50 years old. After her husband died three years earlier, she lost all desire to live. For two of those years, she lived with her daughter, Donna and her husband Ray, before moving into an apartment of her own. She was sick when Don was still alive, but the disease progressed rapidly after his death.

Vernon R. Klock

In a resent e-mail, Tim Klock from New York, informed me of a death in his family. "Vern was very sick with cancer and was doing great, unfortunately it finally took a toll on him. He did have a great holiday with his family and for that we are thankful, " Tim wrote.

My sincere condolences go out to you and your family.
