Warren Reed and Betsey Stephens had eight children. five died in infancy. The lost of their children and other reasons led them to move to Detroit, Michigan about 1840, where he had a farm at "Spring Wells, then about five miles out, but now all in Detroit. For a few years they lived at Waterloo, Iowa, then came back to Detroit. After he was too old to work they lived by turns with their children. His last days, after her death, were with Angeline

Lonyo, and he is buried in Detroit.--Information from the Read Family Tree. (Descendants of Israel Read, compiled by Rev. Henry Maretyn Dodd, New York 1912.)

Warren Reed was intensely patriotic, and so anxious to serve his country that at the age of 63 he enlisted in Co. A. 37 Iowa Infantry. Nov. 15, 1862, but was discharged with honor for illness, May 20th. 1863. He could not stand the strain of a soldier's life. His grandson, Andrew Lonyo, has the discharge paper. His description was: Height 5 feet 10 inches; light complexion; blue eyes; light hair; farmer. ---Read Family Tree.

Christian Klock 73

Christian Klock was born in New York, August 17, 1806. He married Margaret Walrath, who was the daughter of William and Margaret Walrath. Margaret had four children that I know of, Emily, who was born July 1, 1826, Nathan who was born in 1828, Isaac who was born in 1829, and Wesley who was born in 1845. I think that their may have been more children born to Christian and Margaret.

They were married in the St. John's Reformed Church--Church Records.

Christian and his family moved to Michigan around 1858. (According to page 488 of the book, "History of Allegan and Berry Counties, Michigan." I think it was more like 1851 or 1852. This comes from that book:

"In 1851, when Franklin Bliss settled on section 24, where Leonard Wilcox, now of Irving, had made a clearing of 2 acres, he had no neighbor on the north except an Indian called, " Chippewa", who owned 40 acres on section 1 and lived in a log cabin. At that time a well-traveled stage-road crossed the Bliss' farm,-- the one which ran between Grand Rapids and Hastings. Farther north Solomon Clark settled on Section 12 in 1854, and beyond that C.I. Klock located in 1858 on section 2. Mr Klock now lives on section 2 with John Moxon who came with him into the township. Klock's neighbors on the south were Cornelius Walrath and his sons; On the north John Klock and Henry Smith; on the west, the Forbes family; and on the east, John Moe and a Mr. Badgrow. That same spring, Simeon Lawrence settled on section 11. At that day the northeastern portion of the township was a new country for until than the land-owners had chosen to discourage settlements by holding the property out of the market. After 1858, however, the population began multiply rapidly, and the locality is now well peopled, containing, moreover, many valuable farms."

Emily Klock, daughter of Christian and Margaret Walrath was married to John Moxon. John Klock, was the son of Abraham Klock, brother of Christian, lived on the North of Christian Klock, The Walrath's that lived south of the Klock's was also related thru Margaret Walrath. Cornelius Walrath was the brother of Margaret. (Jerry Walrath)

Burried in the Parmelee Cemetery in Thornapple Township, Berry County, Michigan are:

C.L. Klock d. 1888
2 infants (twins) d. 1859
John Klock d. no date (He was born in 1829 and died Sept. 8. 1863 in Harper's Ferry, W.V.)
Margaret Klock d. 1862
Nathan Klock d. 1875
Wesley Klock d. 1879
Moxon, Ann Eliza, b. Nov 23, 1835, d. Jan 27, 1906, wf of John
Moxon, Emily, b. Jul 1, 1826, d. Nov 25, 1862
Moxon, Esther, d. 1862
Moxon, John S., b. Apr 13, 1832, d. Aug 20, 1904
Moxon, Margurite, b. Jul 9, 1862, d. Apr 13, 1875, dau of John & Mary

The two infant twins were the children of John Klock and Emily Conratt. John died at Harpers Ferry Aug. 8, 1863. (Civil War) John was the son of Christians brother, Abraham Klock. John's wife, Emily Conratt, died Feb. 14, 1860.

SOK Genealogy says that William and Margaret (Evans) Walrath are also buried in Parmelee Cemetery.

Note: Jerry Walrath and I have been to Parmelee Cemetery and have not found the graves of William and Margaret Walrath. Also the name was not Evans, it was Ervin.

Note: Information from Jerry Walrath, Christian married Mary Stimson Oct. 10, 1864. (She was 37 and Christian was 58) They were married after the death of his wife Margaret Walrath, who died in 1862.

Christian and Marrgaret Walrath may have had another son, John Klock.
John, born between 1829-30. The American Civil War Soldiers Record has the following

Name; John Klock
Residence; Thornapple, Michigan
Enlistment Date: Sept. 11, 1862
Distinguished Service
Side Served: Union
State Served; Michigan
Unit Numbers; 1075
Enlisted as a Private on Sept. 11, 1863 athe the age of 33
Died on Sept 8, 1863 in Harper's Ferry, W. V.

History of Allegan and Barry Counties, Michigan : John Klock, died of desease at Harper's Ferry, Va. August 1, 1864

His service record would make him born between 1829-1830. Christian Klock is buried in Parmalee Cemetery, Middleville, Michigan. He may have been the son of Christian and not his brother, Abram Klock. He is not listed on any census with Abraham Klock. If he was not the son of Christian, why would they bring his body to Michigan for burial in the same cemetery as Margaret Walrath, the wife of Christian Klock who died in 1862. Christian may have wanted him buried in the same Cemetery has his mother. Christian died May 12, 1888. If Abraham was his father, why would they not want him buried in Lutheran Cem. Black Lake, St. Lawrence Cty. New York with his parents? His wife, Emily Conratt died May 14, 1860. I do not know where she is buried. She is not buried in Lutheran Cem. Black Lake, St. Lawrence Cty. New York. She may be buried in Parmalee Cemetery with her two children as she died in 1860. That may be why John's body was taken to Parmalee Cemetery to be buried with his wife and children.

I have seen records that Christian was born in St. Johnsville, New York on August 17, 1806. He was married in St. Johnsville.
