E-mail From (Scott) Benlevi Six Crows--9/27/05
Greetings and thanks for e-mailing me back.

I believe that I have the information you need to fill the voids. Ann Eliza Klock was called Ida by her parents, James G and Sallie Klock. Ida was born in 1850 and married my great-grandfather Joel Rice Bennett on Dec.1,1875. Joel R. Bennett was born Jan 1, 1854 in Waterloo Iowa. Theirs was obviously a rocky marraige from the beginning with disapproval from her parents. He left shortly after their first child, Elsie Bennett(Hamburger) was born Dec. 12,1876. He reconciled long enough to produce their second daughter Gertrude b. April of 1879. Soon after, a divorce was obtained for Ida by her parents. Why the marraige did not succeed is mere speculation on my part but it may have been due to his philandering and mental cruelty. I do know a lot about his ancestry which is quite extensive. Both of his parents had Native American ancestry along with a pedigree going back to the 1st century C.E. in Europe. Joel R. Bennett's second wife died under mysterious circumstances and his third wife was my great grandmother Josephine Bequette who was nearly full-blooded Illiniwek (Native Am.) Their oldest daughter Hazel was my grandmother. But back to the Klock family, yes, Ida Klock married James Merril and had a son James Merril. Ida Klock(Bennett)Merril is buried at the cemetary in Chico Ca.,along with her James Merril and her daughter Elsie Bennett Hamburger. I have been there and photographed the graves. Elsie Bennett Hamburger had four children by Isaac Hamburger, Lewis(1906-2003),Nancy(1908-1986),Elsie Mae(1911-2003), and Helen(1915-1994). Lewis and Nancy had no children. Elsie Mae had one son, Robert Kitteridge who lives in Woodland Ca, and Helen had two daughters, Kay and Kirsten Krueger,both still living in Ca. Gertrude Bennett married Charles Sowder in 1902 and they had two children, Rev.Charles Sowder and James. I have photo of James and his wife Marie. They lived in Santa Cruz Ca. I mentioned the book by Elsie Hamburger, "I Never Look Back", which was written by Lois Halliday McDonald, whom I've met and talked family with just 2 years back. There is extensive information in that book about this side of the Klock family that you would find very interesting. I bought the book on line for a couple of bucks..I highly suggest you try and get it as it contains a wealth of info on the Klock family. The book contains many photographs. I hope that I may have been helpful in filling the gaps.
